

JEWISH

Mourner's Kaddish (the Jewish prayer for the dead. This is the version Andy learned in Hebrew school). To be said with all standing.

Magnified and sanctified be God's great name in the world which He has created according to His will. May He establish His kingdom soon, in our lifetime. Let us say AMEN.

May his great name be praised to all eternity.

Hallowed and honored, extolled and exalted, adored and acclaimed be the name of the Holy One, though He is above all praises, hymns, and songs of adoration which men can utter. Let us say AMEN.

May God grant abundant peace and life to us and to all Israel. Let us say AMEN.

May He who ordains harmony in the universe grant peace to us and to all Israel. Let us say AMEN.

PRESBYTERIAN

Merciful God,
You heal the broken in heart
And bind up the wounds of the afflicted.
Strengthen us our weakness,
Calm our troubled spirits,
and dispel our doubts and fears.
In Christ's rising from the dead you conquered death and opened the gates of everlasting life.
Renew our trust in you
That by the power of your love
We shall one day be brought together again
With our brother Andy.
Grant this, we pray, through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen

PRESBYTERIAN BURIAL

In sure and certain hope of the resurrection to eternal life,
Through our Lord Jesus Christ,
We commend to the almighty God our brother Andy,
And we commit his ashes to there final resting place.

EPISCOPAL

St. Francis's Prayer (one of Andy's favorite prayers)

Lord, make us instruments of your peace. Where there is hated, let us sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is discord, union; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy. Grant that we may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love. For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life,

O God of grace and glory, we remember before you this day our brother Andy. We thank you for giving him to us, to know and to love as a companion on our earthly pilgrimage. In your boundless compassion console us who mourn, Give us faith to see in death the gate of eternal life, so that in quiet confidence we may continue our course on earth, until, by your call, we are reunited with those who have gone before us; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

AMEN

EPISCOPAL BURIAL

In sure and certain hope of the resurrection to eternal life through our Lord Jesus Christ, we commend to Almighty God our brother Andrew Eric; and commit his body to its final resting place; earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust. The Lord bless him and keep him, the Lord make his face to shine upon him and be gracious unto him, the Lord lift up his countenance upon him and give Andy final peace.
